

Did you know?

We have our own wine region

Did you know that Het Hageland, the region east of the city of Leuven, has its own microclimate? Thanks to its ironstone subsoil and rolling landscape, the warmth of the sun stays there longer even in the evening. This climate makes it ideal for wine growing. That is why the Hageland has several unique wineries with the tastiest Belgian wines. 🍷

What's new?

Wine activities in the Hageland

September is the perfect month to visit the wine region, as there is a lot going on there. The winemakers start picking grapes and the whole neighbourhood celebrates. Discover all the activities we have in store for you at our wine estates here. Please note, this page is only available in Dutch. 🍇

The Houwaartse Berg Walk

Walk of the month

Houwaart church is where your climb up the Houwaartseberg starts. The 'mountain' is crowded with vineyards soaking up the sun. What does crowded mean? De Houwaartse Vineyard, Den Eeckhout Vineyard, Het Eiken Vat Vineyard, Steenkuyl-Wijnfactorij Vineyard, Hagelander Vineyard, Sint-Denijs Vineyard, Ten Gaerde Vineyard are all there...but we may have missed a few.

3x wineries

That are worth a visit

Fancy visiting one of our wineries and tasting the delicious Hageland wine for yourself? These three wineries are worth a visit. But be sure to check out the other wineries too! just make sure you always check the website beforehand or call to see if your visit fits 🍷

1. VANDEURZEN CASTLE VINEYARD

There's a green oasis of peace just a stone's throw away from Leuven at Linden Castle, also known as the 'White Castle'.
